

Kororoit Creek Walk - Sunshine - 7.6km Out and Back - Easy (1 Foot)

Start/End Point: Sunshine Train Station

Walk Description: The trail that follows the Kororoit Creek is pleasant, quiet and full of bird life. This trail follows the creek for over 20kms yet this section here was the most pretty as it avoids the industrial areas and busy spots. From Sunshine train station to you walk about 600m until you get to the trail, after that its all greenery and nice views. As you walk up the Kororoit creek you will cross a few bridges, duck under overhead passes and enjoy the many birdsongs in this quite nook.

1. At the Sunshine train station. From here take the footbridge west over the tracks.

2. Walking west over the Sunshine trainline.

3. Outside the train station, cross the road near the roundabout and jump onto Durham Rd.

4. Look for this large corner pub which sits on Durham Road. Follow this road to the lights.

5. Once at the lights, cross over, turn left and follow Andersons Rd south to the trail.

6. Here is the Kororoit Creek trail, turn right and head north-west and enjoy!

7. About 300m from the road, beautiful trees and scenery begins.

8. A small detour, just follow the main trail that runs parallel to the Kororoit Creek.

9. Nicely regenerated native area named the Lizard Lounge.

10. After the Lizard lounge, cross the creek and continue west.

11. Here some clever local resident has extended his back yard for his chooks!

12. At this junction, keep to the right and follow the creek.

13. Turn right on this bridge here.

14. Turn left immediately after the bridge to follow the M80 Trail.

15. Heading north under the rail-line bridge and Forest Street.

16. Shortly after the bridge, turn left here to follow a small trail that follows the creek.

17. The small trail leads you back up to the main trail. Keep left at the next junction.

18. Nice spot for a rest before you keep heading west along the trail.

19. A nice open area where dogs can run off leash.

20. This is the end point of this walk, just before the M8—Ballarat Road

21. Before returning, look across the river to see the many prickly pear cactus!
