

Merri Creek Trail / Coburg - 5.2km return - Easy

Start/End Point: Renown St/Sydney Rd or Carr St/Sydney Rd Tram #19 (Alternative - Train to Batman Station and walk over to Sydney Road)

Walk Description: This walk travels along a small section of the Merri Creek Trail which is a beautiful trail that can be enjoyed from most Northern suburbs! This section here features Coburg Lake and then travels north up the Merri Creek. There are toilets and water stations near the lake so make the most of them if required. Otherwise, enjoy this very green and pretty walk and don't forget that its welcomed to travel further up the trail if you want to add more time and distance to your adventure.

1. Looking south down Sydney road at the Renown tram stop.

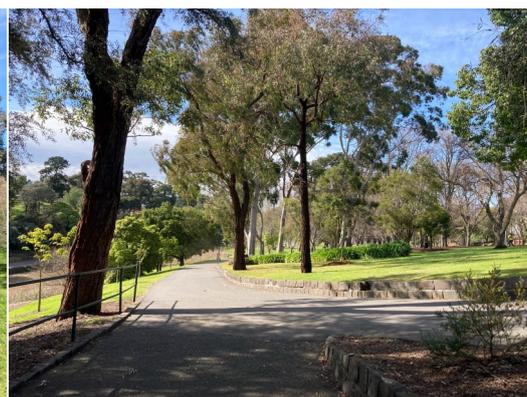

2. Standing at the other Tram stop looking south. Take a left here onto Carr Street

3. 150m down Carr street. You will see this park on your right. Go right on the main trail

4. In about 100m you come to a bridge. Turn right here and follow up around the trees.

5. Coming into Coburg Lake reserve. Keep heading east down towards the water. (Toilets are up on your right)

6. Follow along next to the lake. The path briefly joins Murray Rd before you can cross over the bridge.

7. Take a moment to enjoy the falls before crossing the bridge.

8. Standing on the Murray Rd footpath, take the left here over the bridge.

9. Shortly after the bridge, turn left onto the Merri Creek Trail.

10. Nice place to stop for lunch or a break if you wish.

11. Here you can either go left down the stairs or stay high as you head NW.

12. Cross the bridge and take a right to head back to where you were earlier.

13. Now heading more NE, follow the Merri Creek Trail.

14. Keep following the main trail under the Carr St Bridge.

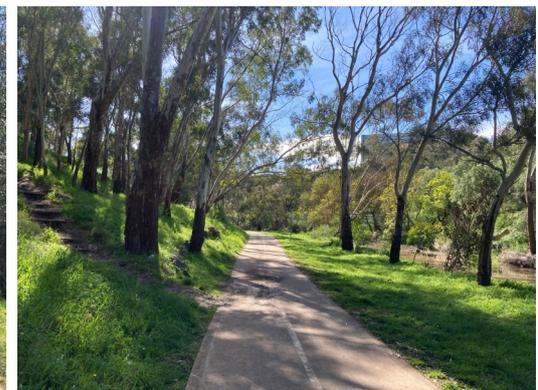

15. Stay right here and keep the Merri Creek on your right.

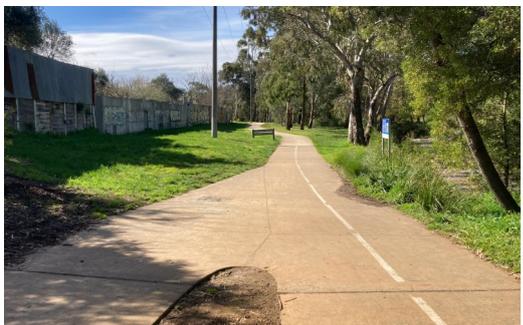

16. Keep to the main trail, walk under the footbridge.

17. Still on the Main trail, here is a nice area to rest if needed.

18. Optional track that heads up the hill to Parker reserve. Otherwise keep going!

19. Here is where to turn back and return.

20. Option to go right up here to Parker Reserve

21. If you do, here you can re-join the trail.
